The Chinese Communist Party United Front Department and the Youth Corps have jointly recruited 1,200 Korean youths from Chinese Communist Government agencies, communications services, factories, military schools, and other organizations for service with the North Korean Army as company grade officers and senior non-commissioned officers. All have had previous service with the Chinese Communist Army. They were assembled in Peiping from the East, Central and South, and Southwest China areas and left for Korea on 10 December through Tientsin.
